BY REPUBLICANS

Senator McCandless Is Jealous of Ewa's Supervisor ARCHER INCIDENT UP TO

DELEGATES ELECTED IN SIXTH PRECINCT OF THE FIFTH DIS-TRICT—SITUATION IS STRENUOUS.

Senator "Link" McCandless of the Sixth Precinct of the Fifth District was in town early this morning chat ting with friends. While he glorled in Low's victory over Archer at Ewa last Saturday, still some uncasiness was clearly visible in the Senator's physiognomy. He kept Charlie Hustace wondering what the trouble was until Supervisor Jack Lucas joined the Lunch. No sooner had the Supervisor arrived than the Senator exclaimed. "Jackle, I, on behalf of the Republi ans of the Ewa Precinct, want the control of the Road Department. We must have it, Jackie, and I think we cught to have control of it instead of an Independent man, or one who proposes to buck the party's regular nomnee for Supervisor."

The Senator proposes to see that the control of the Road Department is put under Republicans and not Independents or Home Rulers.

Sanguine Republicans no doubt will support Senator McCandless' position. but it is believed the Supervisors will support their fellow member, Archer. The situation presents a serious thought for the political leaders and perhaps the day is not far distant then a solution will be reached.

Supervisor Archer, whose scalp Sen-ator McCandless is after, was challenged last Saturday when he present ed himself to vote, by Low. On being challenged he appealed to the judges. who allowed his vote to pass. The ention of the County Committee. It again Low contends now that Archer had enrolled when the roll book was closed after the meeting for the nomination of the candidates for delegates to the onvention on the 24th ult. Archer ays that he signed the roll again before 10 o'clock at night of that day. On this point the rule seems to be clear that the roll book was to be kept open until 10 o'clock. The matter will be passed up to the County Committee for settlement. Should the committee decide in favor of Archer, then Albert Waterhouse, who ran on Archer's ticket, and for whom Archer voted last Saturday, will be tied with Thos.
